

APEC FIELD BIOLOGY INTERNSHIP APPLICATION

Spring application post marked: February 1st Summer application post marked June 8th
Fall application post marked: September 22nd

Mail to: APEC, Field Biology Internship Application
228-06 Northern Blvd, Douglaston, NY 11363-1890

Remember to include a letter of recommendation and your 250 words statement on one of three topics below. Your application will not be processed if anything is missing**

Student's Name _____ Sex _____

Address _____ APT _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Home Phone # _____ Cell / Work # _____

Email _____

High School _____ Grade _____

Science Courses taken _____

High School Science Assistant Principal _____

Phone # _____ Email _____

Emergency Contact _____ Relationship _____

Emergency # _____

Internship Session Spring 20 _____ Summer 20 _____ Fall 20 _____

(Circle the session you are applying for and include the year. You may apply for both the Fall and Spring session with the same application.)

Please note that the field and laboratory work involved presents little or no danger to the student. By signing this permission slip you are consenting to the involvement of your child in this program. By doing so, you are agreeing to hold no person responsible for any injury or accident incurred during said project.

Student's signature

Parent / Guardian Name

Parent Guardian Signature

Statement topics (250 words, typed)

1. Discuss a current environmental topic and how it relates to you.
2. Create a dialogue between yourself and an important person in science.
3. Describe an environment issue and possible action that you and/or the government can take to remedy the situation.

Contact Information

If you have any questions or comments about this program or would like a copy of the syllabus you can call or write to:

Alley Pond Environmental Center
Field Biology Internship
228-06 Northern Boulevard
Douglaston, NY 11363-1890
718-229-4000